Stuffing the 'second briefcase'

Definitely oversized and sometimes tasseled, trendy bags this season come in neutral blacks, greys and chocolate browns with golden zippers and buttons.

Chose a long strap to diagonally drape over your shoulder. Or grab one with a handle to clutch. Make sure there are pockets to hold everything from a pack of personalized tissues to a T-Mobile Sidekick.

"My purse is like a second briefcase," said Nicole Cashman, fashion plate and owner of Cashman & Associates. "I'm on the go from 8 a.m. until 10 p.m. some days and I carry everything in there that will help me freshen up."

With that in mind, we put together this fall's It bag, packing it with all the gear any Philadelphia stylista will need when she's out and about.
